
What Should I Know About My Chaplain
Civil Air Patrol Chaplain - And Ministry of Presence

Who is your Chaplain?

Your Chaplain is a Civil Air Patrol Officer member of a clergy who serves God and Country.

- CHAPLAINS COME FROM ALL FAITHS - They can reach out to all CAP members, their families, serving people of all faiths.

"Chaplaincy is about faith not religion." Ch.Eisenhower

BANG!
CHAPLAINS HAVE A UNIQUE ROLE.
BUT WHAT IS THAT?

Your Chaplain is someone you can DEPEND ON 01

Spiritual Leaders

When you need help. There is always a chaplain to contact via email. You can call as well.

02

Counselor

Help with special challenges involving family, school, disappointments.

03

Teacher

Professional Development Classes, Guidance and much more.

04

Friend

Did you know that Chaplains holds confidentiality? Yeah! They won't tell others what are shared with them.

Religious Practice

Observe Religious Practice Is part of your chaplain strives to help you achieve a meaningful spiritual experience.
Feel free to share to your chaplain your faith.

Grow Spiritually: During your CAP time, you may experience several challenges and having someone to talk to it is important.
Your chaplain extends a hand from beginning to end.

How can my chaplain assist me?

General Religious Ministry

- Emotional Support
- Religious Studies
- Pastoral Counseling
- Prayer Breakfast
- Other Services

Denominational Ministry

Chaplains serve CAP members, as well as members of their own faith, providing support and services unique to that faith.

Did You Know that?

A Chaplain Must Meet HIGH STANDARDS

- Education: A Chaplain MUST have a Post-Graduate training from a recognized institution.
- Denominational Endorsement: Chaplains Must be fully qualified and endorsed ministers, priestess, rabbis etc. to perform duties of a chaplain. Some denominations also require a period of service before endorsement.
- Top Personal Qualities A Chaplain MUST demonstrate strong intellectual moral and spiritual character.
- Special Training to Assist Military Personal: Chaplains MUST graduate from a special training to assist Military Personal and Perform Military Funeral at National Cemeteries.

What else can a Chaplain do?

Chaplains CAN help you in MANY ways.

Missions & Encampments

Your chaplain can help you during challenging times, all you have to do is contact, one of them.

Advice on Life and Career Decisions

When you're faced with decision that have long-range consequences, your chaplain can help.

Crisis Management

Yes, Chaplains are trained to provide guidance and assistance in crises.

Administering Sacraments, Rites and Ordinances

Friendship

Did you ever thought about having a conversation with someone that will never judge you? Chaplain will listen and do NOT judge.

Sharing

When invited, chaplains can share a prayer, a word of encouragement.

Sacraments

Your chaplain will always provide observances according to their own beliefs .

I'm Not Religious

There is always room for education, Instruction, guidance. You don't have to be religious, The chaplain will be there to listen to you.

Which area do you need assistance?

Suicide Thoughts

If you or someone you know needs assistance, we can help.

Family Issues

Sometimes all you need is someone to listen. You got it.

Stress Management

Chaplains are trained helping you to find balance in times of stress.

Decision Making

Decision making is one of the largest causes of stress. Do you need help with this?

Your Chaplain is a Community Leader

Visit the Sick

Recovering from physical illness or injury can be lonely, disencouraging time. Your chaplain also can visit, bringing a word of faith and encouragement.

Address Social Concerns

Chaplains can lead the way confronting problems that could face any member of CAP, such as alcohol, drug abuse and domestic violence.

Promote Positive Relations

Chaplains may sponsor a variety of educational participation at encampments, training and missions. There benefit all ethnic, age and groups.

Your Chaplain's Mission is...
To serve God, Country and you!

The reason of these information is to help you to:

Understand your Chaplain's Mission

And Responsibilities

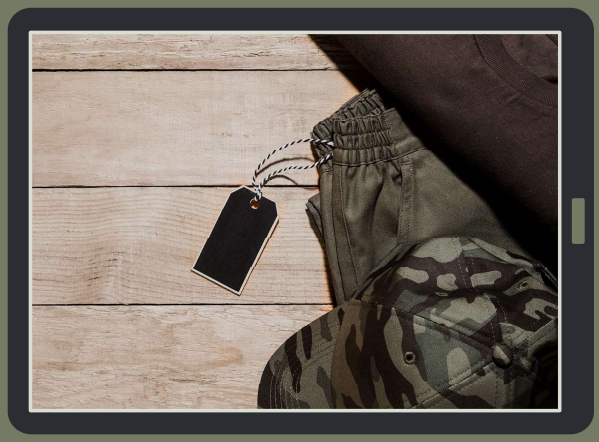

Accepting the help

It is not easy to open and share with a fairly new person in you life, but a chaplain will keep it confidential. Chaplains are here to assist you! Save this information and share with someone that might need it.

Being there is as different being present as hearing different
—Leia Eisenhower

How Should I Address my Chaplain

Chaplains are addresses by “Chaplains” regardless of rank or religious affiliation.

CONFIDENCE

Conversations with your chaplain are just confidential as they would be with a member of the clergy in their private life.

THANK YOU

Do you have any questions about this E-book?
leisenhower@hc.cap.gov

1(631)336.7250

https://capchaplain.com/resources/

Ch. Cap. Leia Eisenhower
Long Island Group Chaplain
9th Cadet Squadron Mission Chaplain
www.leiaeisenhower.com
Content Creator